

XVII Chess Promotion Tournament

Almansa, August 10 to 14, 2022

Tournament A for players with ≥ 2350 ELO FIDE

Tournament B for players with ≥ 2000 ELO FIDE

BASES

1. The tournament will be played by the Swiss System for 8 rounds on August 10, 11, 12, 13 and 14, 2022. It will take place at the BLU HOTEL & SPA PUERTA DE ALMANSA, in Almansa (Albacete). The rounds will be done with a computer system. If there is no human error in the management of the program, claims will not be accepted for the resulting pairings in each round.
2. There will be up to 2 BYES available to the players, they can be requested before the start of the tournament (always in writing). They can be used in the first six rounds. In the requested round, the player requesting the BYE will not be paired and will be awarded half a point.
3. Players whose participation is not confirmed before 4:00 p.m. on August 9 will not be paired in the first round. The first round will be published on August 9 at 5:00 p.m.
4. The rhythm of the game will be 1 hour and 30 minutes, plus 30 seconds per move. The waiting time for a player to start the game is 15 minutes, except for the first round, which will be 30 minutes, after which time the player who does not show up will lose his game.
5. During the game, each player is obliged to write down his own moves and those of his opponent in the correct way, move after move, as clear and readable as possible, algebraic notation. It is forbidden to write down moves before and perform them, except when the player is claiming a draw under Article 9.2 or 9.3.
 - Yo. If so desired, a player can reply to an opponent's move before scoring it. You must record your previous move before making another. Both players must note the draw offer on their scoresheet (Article 8.1).
 - ii. Remember that with this pace of play you cannot stop scoring at any time.
6. It is forbidden to carry, or use, mobile phones or any other communication device in the game area and in any other contiguous area designated by the referee, unless authorized by him.
7. In the event of a tie on points, the following tiebreaker systems will be applied, drawing the first 4, in the indicated order:
 - a. Average performance of rivals. For the calculation of this tiebreaker, only the performances of those players who have played at least two thirds of the rounds against valued rivals will be taken into account.
 - b. Buchholz-1 system
 - c. Medium Buchholz or Buchholz Cut.

d. Average rating of the rivals.

and. Greater number of games won.

F. 5 minute game

Yo. Premature agreement penalty: In case of a tie, decide the final score after valuing as zero (for the sole purpose of this tiebreaker) the tables for premature agreement in any of the tournament rounds.

ii. Premature draws will be considered, for this sole purpose, when they occur before 15 moves have been made -which do not constitute a repetition of moves, claimed or not, with the manifest purpose of exceeding said limit- or before one hour of session has elapsed. of game. The arbiter may allow, on a case-by-case basis, a slightly lower number of moves if the game is sufficiently advanced. The list of the items that involve premature agreement will be published.

iii. The draw proposal must always be noted on the form. The players will communicate their agreement to the referee and will keep the times on the game clocks until confirmed by the referee, who will indicate to the players whether or not the agreement is premature for tie-breaking purposes. This system respects the Laws of Chess.

8. The Tournament will be valid for ELO of FIDE (IRT) and ELO FEDA. The Head Arbiter will send the Official Tournament Report to FIDE and FEDA.

9. Any arbitration incident will be resolved by the Main Referee of the Tournament, or by the Tournament Director if it is not an arbitration issue.

10. Analysis or the reproduction of games in the Game Room will not be allowed. The Game Room may not be left, with the game in progress, without the authorization of the Referee. A player whose turn it is to make a move may not leave the board without the Referee's authorization. Comments between the players about the games in play must be avoided.

11. The prizes will be awarded in strict order of classification. If a player is entitled to prize money in several classifications, the one with the highest value will be assigned. The withholding established by the Current Legislation will be applied to these amounts.

Yo. The prizes are not cumulative, with the exception of the trophies, in which each player only has the option of the trophy in their age category.

12. Smoking is prohibited in the game room.

13. It is at the discretion of the organization the elimination of players with a forfeit, or who are not in the game room before the start of the first round.

14. For matters not provided for in these Bases, this Tournament will be governed by the current FIDE or FEDA Regulations.

15. The right of admission is reserved.

16. Spanish players must be in possession of a valid federation license. Players with a flag other than ESP must have a FIDE code.

17. "The participants in the tournament authorize the publication of their personal data in the different means of communication that the organization considers appropriate for the necessary dissemination of the event (lists of results, classifications, photographs, games, etc.)"

18. During the awards ceremony, three hams will be raffled among the players who have finished the tournament. To receive said prize, it will be mandatory to be in the Game Room at the time of the draw.

19. Participation in this Tournament implies full and unreserved acceptance of these Rules.
